Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 6, 2014, Equinix, Inc. (“Equinix”) entered into amendment agreements (the “Amendment Agreements”) with each of Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, London Branch and Goldman, Sachs & Co. (the “Counterparties”) to amend the capped call transactions (the “Capped Call Transactions”) that Equinix entered into with each of the Counterparties in connection with the issuance of Equinix’s 4.75% Convertible Subordinated Notes (the “Notes”). The Amendment Agreements provide that, in lieu of certain exchanges of the Notes constituting a termination event under the Capped Call Transactions with respect to a number of call options equal to the number of Notes, in denominations of $1,000 principal amount, being exchanged, such call options (the “Amended Call Options”) will instead remain outstanding. The Amended Call Options have substantially similar terms as the original call options except that (i) the Amended Call Options are European-style call options with an expiration date that corresponds to the maturity date of the Notes, (ii) each Counterparty may transfer its rights and obligations under, or in certain limited circumstances terminate all or a portion of, the Amended Call Options, if such Counterparty’s ownership of Equinix’s common stock exceeds certain thresholds and (iii) in connection with any dilutive or concentrative event affecting Equinix’s common stock, the cap price of the Amended Call Options shall be adjusted pursuant to standard, ISDA based provisions for over-the-counter equity options.

The foregoing description of the Amendment Agreements is a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Amendment Agreements, copies of which will be filed as exhibits to Equinix’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2014.

Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On June 9, 2014, Equinix entered into a note exchange agreement (the “Exchange Agreement”) with a holder (the “Holder”) of Equinix’s outstanding 3.00% Convertible Subordinated Notes (the “3.00% Notes”) pursuant to which the Holder agreed to exchange approximately $217.2 million of its 3.00% Notes to Equinix in exchange for (i) the number of shares of Equinix’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”) that the Holder could obtain if it converted its 3.00% Notes on the date hereof pursuant to the indenture governing the 3.00% Notes; provided that the Applicable Stock Price (as used in the Indenture) will be determined based on the arithmetic average of the volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock during the eight trading days following the date hereof and (ii) approximately $5.4 million in cash (the “Exchange”). The Exchange is expected to occur on June 20, 2014, subject to customary closing conditions. The issuance of the Common Stock is being made in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. As a result of this Exchange, and prior exchanges of approximately $215.8 million of 4.75% Convertible Subordinated Notes, Equinix expects to recognize a loss on debt extinguishment of approximately $52 million in the second quarter of 2014.
